

History

Navigators

A WORLD OF BRIGHT IDEAS	MISSION CONTROL	WARS OF THE WORLD	YOU'RE NOT INVITED	COME FLY WITH ME! AMERICA	I HAVE A DREAM...
To learn about important inventions from the past	- To learn about space exploration and discovery - To develop knowledge and understanding of famous astronomers, as well as significant worldwide astronauts. - To learn about the development and role of satellite communication	A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066 - To know and understand why wars occur - To learn about the two world wars and understand their impact - To understand what a civil war is and have some knowledge of famous civil wars - To know where current wars are taking place in the world - To learn about pacifism and the concept of peace	Pupils should be taught about the Roman Empire - To learn the meaning of the word 'invasion' and understand the possible reasons for and consequences of an invasion - To know the location of Italy and the Roman Empire - To understand why the Roman Army was so successful in their invasions - To learn about some of the famous battles that took place during the Roman era - To understand the impact of the Roman invasions on the inhabitants of those countries invaded	- To learn about the discovery of America - To know about the Native Americans	- To learn the definition of apartheid - To know about the Jim Crow Laws and how they affected black people - To learn about Martin Luther King and the impact he had on society - To become familiar with Nelson Mandela's role in the anti-apartheid movement in South Africa - To know about and understand other forms of discrimination e.g. anti-semitism

National Curriculum Objectives =

History

TIME TEAM

Pupils should be taught a local history study

- To identify and research a famous historical figure who lived in the local area
- To learn about five key local landmarks, using a variety of sources and asking relevant questions, discovering how they have changed over time
- To use their recent learning to plan a tour of the area for their famous visitor from the past, explaining how it has changed over time

PHARAOH QUEEN

Pupils should be taught about an Early Civilization

- To know the location of Egypt
- To know about significant Ancient Egyptian places and individuals
- To know about Ancient Egyptian beliefs and practices
- To understand how evidence is used to make historical claims
- To understand the importance of the River Nile in Ancient Egyptian times
- To learn about the third female pharaoh, Hatshepsut

National Curriculum Objectives =

